JUDICIAL LAW CLERK

$59,246 - $99,785 *

Announcement No.: 16-41 Closes: Open Until Filled

Available: August, 2017 for a 1 to 2 yr term with the possibility of becoming a Career Position

Position Overview

The judicial law clerk researches issues of law, writes extensively, attends and assists with initial preparation for trials and other court proceedings, and acts as advisor, making recommendations based on the law, to the Honorable Brian J. Davis, United States District Judge. The caseload in the jurisdiction is heavy, and the types of cases presented are varied, often involving novel issues of law. While the nature of the matters presented is serious, the office environment is personable. There is daily interaction with the Judge and other law clerks and staff concerning legal and court-related issues.

Minimum Qualification Requirements

The applicant must be a law school graduate at the time of appointment and must possess excellent research and writing skills, and PC proficiency in Windows, Word and / or WordPerfect. Experience on the editorial board of law review, moot court, and/or publication of noteworthy articles is preferred but not required. Good character, maturity, and willingness to work long hours and under deadlines are also required. Bar membership and post-graduate experience in actual litigation or previous clerkship experience is preferred.

Information for Applicants

Employment with the United States District Court offers a generous benefit package, civil and criminal law experience at the federal court level, and an environment providing significant responsibility and challenge. Applicants should submit a cover letter, current resume with class rank, transcripts and writing samples to: Federal Clerkship #16-41, Chambers of the Honorable Brian J. Davis, United States District Judge, 300 North Hogan Street, Suite 11-400, Jacksonville, Florida 32202-4249.

Deadline for Receipt of Resumes

All applications will be considered when received, preferably by May 30, 2017, and should be submitted as soon as possible. Selected interviews will be scheduled as applications are reviewed. Due to the volume of applications usually received, receipt of individual applications will not be acknowledged.
